For defendant to read, review with counsel, and acknowledge:

I understand that federal law generally provides that I have a right to have formal charges lodged against me within thirty days of my arrest and a right to a trial on those charges within seventy days after formal charges have been lodged. I further understand that I do not have to consent to the exclusion of time sought in this application and that, by consenting to entry of this order, the date on which formal charges must be lodged will be delayed and the date for the commencement of any trial on those charges will likely be delayed as well. I also understand that if formal charges are not brought against me within the time required by law, I may seek relief from the court, and that this relief might include dismissal of the complaint now pending against me.

I have reviewed this application, as well as the order annexed below, and have discussed the question of whether I should consent to entry of an order of excludable delay carefully with my attorney. I consent to the entry of the order voluntarily and of my own free will. I have not been threatened or coerced for my consent.

For Defendant's Counsel to read and acknowledge:
I certify that I have reviewed this application and the attached order carefully with my client. I further certify that I have discussed with my client a defendant's right to speedy indictment and the question of whether to consent to entry of an order of excludable delay. I am satisfied that my client understands the contents of this application and the attached order, that my client consents to the entry of the order voluntarily and of his or her own free will, and that my client has not been threatened or coerced for consent. /s/ Jeffrey Chartier
